

Song of Songs 1 – Celebrating Love

Introducing the Book

If I were a minstrel. I'd sing you six love songs, to tell the whole world of the love that we share.
If I were a merchant. I'd bring you six diamonds, with six blood red roses for my love to wear.
If I were a nobleman. I'd bring you six palaces, with six hundred servants for comforting care.
But I am a simple man, a poor common farmer. So take my six ribbons to tie back your hair. Yellow and brown, blue as the sky. Red as my blood, green as your eye. 'Six Ribbons' Jon English
